

ARE YOU PREPARED TO CELEBRATE?

A Dimensional Portal

One of the many well documented phenomena of consciousness, Trance Channeling, has been observed through many cultures in human history. It has been utilized by many to gain greater clarity and as a source of guidance and confirmation for an expansive view of their multi-dimensional reality. The resultant all-inclusive information expressed is of tremendous assistance in regard to the everyday complexities of the human journey.

Whether one refers to this experience as spirit, energy, information, the multi-dimensional aspects of ones' consciousness, shamanism, or energetic healing, the bottom line is truth. In this way, consulting with a full body Trance Channel, clearly, is an experience for the Expansion of Awareness.

During this process, Cé Ánn enters into a quiet meditative state and the enlightening dimensions of himself appear. That which is known, yet may be a forgotten truth, is expressed in a fascinating blend of inspiration and support.

On Personal Discovery

Whether at a public, semiprivate group, or, one to one with Multi-Dimensional Awareness, this is your opportunity for expansion. The simplest way to approach such sessions is to relax and let go of "figuring your world out" for the time you are about to share.

If you are having a personal consultation, it is wise to spend some quiet time prior, to collect your thoughts and prepare for the multi-dimensional gateway you are about to enter. Some people make note of pertinent questions to have a better focus, others prefer to let the frequencies encountered reveal what needs to be addressed. An audio recording will be created for you, so, just relax and absorb what is being presented.

Finally, take time out for yourself afterwards! Why rush into the busyness of your world so quickly? The acknowledgment and healing of your human experience is being awakened, so, absorb and integrate some of what has just been transmitted....

About the Channel

After being opened to channeling in 1983, "the channel formerly known as Seán Michael," has been offering trance sessions extensively since going public in 1986. He travels through the States and Internationally offers this work he calls Visionary Guidance.

It became known early on there was a calling toward this path, as he hails from a heritage of psychics on his family's maternal side.

Cé Ánn inspires loving allowance, self motivation, intuitive growth and the awakening of unlimited human potential.

He makes his home amongst the red rocks of Sedona, Arizona.

"Follow your spirit without hesitation, it will always guide you. Since 'there can be only one', then there is no other and Source is simply what it is: a beginning without end. All else is the Multi-verse... consciousness expressing itself tangibly and intangibly through a dualistic manifestation looking as alpha to omega: the Human Experience.

What more can be said is simply belief, for in the end (as in the beginning): I know nothing, no-thing at all."

Thank you for your interest. I have put together this brochure to offer an understanding of what it is i am presenting and the opportunities provided through “Visionary Guidance.”

Cognizance beyond the distractions of the human experience, this is an all encompassing consultation technique; a seeming blend of philosophies, psychologies, and spiritual practices of human reality merged with nonphysical awareness using an altered state or trance.

Visionary Guidance is communing with multi-dimensional reality... the aspects of yourself which are felt but not always consciously acknowledged. Offering myself as the portal in the trance channeled experience, you take a journey into the clarity of self discovery.

Twenty six years ago, if someone had told me this dramatic, entertaining, presentation of information would be my path, i probably would have said: “you need guidance!” Blessed with the expression of such a communication, my life continues to be transformed.

Thank you for this opportunity.
Peace in Love, Cé Änn (say on)
